Prayers:

Holy God, Creator of heaven and earth, Have mercy upon us.
Remember not our offenses, neither reward us according to our sins. Spare us, spare your people, whom you have redeemed by your cross and passion, and by your mercy preserve us forever.

Spare your people, O God,
from disaster, from hurricanes, fires, tornados earthquakes, blizzards and floods,
from disease and sickness, from famine and violence,
In all times of sorrow, in all times of joy; in the hour of death and at the day of judgment, Lord, deliver us.

Hear our prayers, O God.
For the repose of the souls of those who have died in the wake of Hurricane Katrina, that your holy angels may welcome them into Paradise.

Console all who grieve: those whose loved ones have died, whose families are torn; whose homes have been destroyed, whose possessions have been ruined.

Heal those who continue suffer from injury and illness, emotional and spiritual distress. Give them hope and encouragement each day.

Give food to the hungry and drink to the thirsty.

Give rest to weary and peace to the restless.

Give strength to those in leadership; grant them wisdom and power to act in accordance with your will.

Bless the bishops, clergy and people of the Gulf Coast who strive to do your service in the midst of their own grief and pain. Give them fortitude to serve as you would serve.

Grant your people grace to witness to your word, to open their hearts in love, and to give from their abundance, that they may bring forth the fruits of your Spirit.

Forgive us Lord, for all negligence and hardheartedness, for inequities and injustice that have resulted in bitterness and strife, in injury and death.

In the midst of incomprehensible loss, grant us eyes that see, ears that hear and hands that work so that we may discern how you would have us respond.

God, You are our refuge and strength. Our Very Present help in trouble. In you Lord is our Hope and we shall never hope in vain.

Glory to God whose power, working in us, can do infinitely more than we can ask or imagine. Whose love, grace, and support is enough for even our deepest sorrows.

Glory to him from generation to generation in the Church, and in Christ Jesus for ever.

Amen.
